Index: Left margin can be reduced

Resume: Side bar is to close to the content

Tables' view look simple, more thing can be added

Part 3. Reflection – what I learned from doing the peer review

About the peer review process
 I leaned some codes which I did not know. Design is really good. I am really bad about design. It needs skill.

About what I might change in my own assignment

I added coursework. And I will try to change some layout.

About quality and design

I am trying to write codes and I am new about this. But Hamza has really good experience. He is going to teach me.
